6. NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

NW – Nothing to report.

7. New Business:

A - Remembrance Day- wreath was laid in our honour by Dan Van Nice.

B - OXY PRESENTATION- Ross Helps will chair a presentation in our community around March and has accepted Kevin J's offer to help. Const Gagne has permission to use the Fire hall for this presentation, and they will waive the cost for us

C - OPP canned food drive through for Operation Christmas Tree will be held Dec 10th. Police Foundation Students will be here to help.

D – CCpC Facebook page – friends are slowly increasing, now at 23. All O.P.P. releases + are being posted here.

8. Round the table:

A - Ross H. - multitude of stop signs in Corunna and believes that some should be eliminated. Passed on to Council. No progress and no update from Council.

B - Const Paul will look into getting a speed monitoring device and student volunteers from the Police foundation to man it. The device is available but in need of repair so we will wait until spring to see if it has been fixed. If not maybe we can borrow Nova's or Imperial Oil's. Ross Helps has offered to help with manning it.

C - Jim D. –Stop light at Hill and Lyndock should have an advance light for South bound traffic to turn East on Hill. Item was brought up at Council meeting but it is a County traffic light.

D - Kevin J.- Needs our safety vests for Sat. drive through.

E - Peter G.- Hill and HWY 40 intersection now cleaned up and looking better.

The Hwy 40 construction on the bridges and overpasses is nearing completion after a long construction period.

F - Peter put a motion on the floor to bring our members up to date with new jackets, seconded by Paul Aubin. Motion CARRIED. Kevin J. will get prices and catalogue to present at our next meeting.

10. Motion to adjourn was made at 19:47 by Kevin J. and seconded by Pat Brown.
